

Keighley & District Agricultural Show Society

PRIVACY POLICY

Introduction

Keighley & District Agricultural Show Society ("the Society") collects, uses, stores and otherwise processes "personal data" for the purpose of running the annual Keighley & District Agricultural Show ("the Show").

The Society is committed to protecting your personal data and handling it in accordance with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This Policy sets out how the Society manages those responsibilities.

Who is the responsible person?

Because of the nature of the Society's Management Committee, whereby organization of the Show is shared between a number of sections, there are a number of Committee Members who collect, use and store personal data. A list of named "responsible persons" will be updated each year at the Society's Annual General Meeting, and each responsible person will sign to confirm their responsibilities under this Policy. This Policy applies to all personal data which responsible persons process and store regardless of the location where that personal data is stored.

How long do we retain personal data?

The Society will only hold your personal data for as long as necessary. For continuity purposes and to enable us to contact you with information about subsequent Shows, this would typically be three years from the time of your most recent consent. After this, all personal data will be destroyed.

All paper or electronic copies of application / booking / entry forms will be kept until the year following the Show to which they relate, after which they will be destroyed.

In the case of Gift Aid Declarations, HMRC require details to be retained for six years.

Your rights

- That you have given your consent to your personal data being maintained and processed by the Society.
- That you can request a copy of your personal data held by the Society and to receive this within one month of receipt of the request.

- That you can withdraw consent at any time and ask us to erase all your personal data without delay.

“Responsible Persons” responsibilities

- Personal data will be collected and processed only for matters relating to the Society and the Show.
- Records of your consent will be kept.
- No personal data will be disclosed either verbally or in writing, accidentally or otherwise, to any unauthorised third party without your permission.
- All personal data will be kept securely,-

Breaches of data

A “data breach” is something which could result in the destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of or access to personal data by others. Any breaches of confidentiality will be reported initially to the Show Secretary.

If it is deemed that the data breach is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of the individual(s) then the data breach will be reported to the Information Commissioners Office and Charity Commissioners within three days.

If the data breach is likely to result in high risk (eg criminal activity, publication in the public domain etc), then the individual(s) concerned will be notified immediately.

The Show Secretary will be responsible for assessing, and acting on, information regarding any data breach (or the Show Chairman in the event of the breach being caused by the Show Secretary.)
